(17-95/2014A-PCI)

184.1 The latest information on record was placed.

184.2 It was noted that -

- a) Regulation 10 to 19 of the Education Regulations, 1991 specifically provide the eligibility for appearing in D.Pharm Part-I and Part-II examination, mode of examination, award of marks and sessional examination and practical work including improvement of sessional marks, approval of examination and certificate of passing examination.
- b) These regulations require a certificate from the Head of the academic institution to the effect that the candidate has satisfactorily undergone the “course of study” by attending not less than 75% of the classes held both in theory and in practical separately in each subject for appearing for appearing in the examination.
- c) Regulation 20 to 23 of the said Education Regulations covers the details of the practical training.
- d) There are some case where the PCI has approved the “course of study” and “examination” in pharmacy in respect of students where the academic institution concerned was not approved u/s 12 of the Pharmacy Act, 1948. Approvals in such cases have been given only on the basis of certification of the examination authority regarding the genuineness of the degree/diploma certificates. But the instant case is at the different footing where examinations are not conducted.

184.3 In view of above, the Examining Authority shall verify at its end the following information as provided in statutory provisions of Education Regulations, 1991 (ER-91) in respect of each student -

- a) whether the students admitted to the first year course were holding the minimum prescribed qualification as laid down under Regulation-5 of the ER-91.
- b) whether the students have undergone the minimum prescribed No. of hours both in theory and practical separately as prescribed under Regulation-7 of the ER-91. For this the Examining Authority shall verify the theory notebooks as well as the practical notebook further ensuring that course curriculum as laid down under Appendix-A of ER-91 is covered both in theory and practical.
- c) whether each student has undergone the course of study by attending not less than 75% of the classes held both in theory and practical separately.
- d) whether regular record of both theory and practical class work and examination (sessional) conducted by an institution for D.Pharm Part-I has been maintained for each student (Ref.: Regulation-14(1)).
- e) whether minimum 2 sessional examinations were held under Regulation 14(2) of ER-91. If yes, sessional examinations notebooks be verified vis-à-vis the performance of student alongwith marks for day to day assessment in the practical class work.
- f) whether any additional sessional examination was conducted by the institution for improvement of sessional marks.

184.4 Further the Examining Authority shall forward the examination rules as approved by the State Govt. for the conduct of D.Pharm examinations.
