<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - It was noted that inspections conducted by the PCI have been pointed out that building is very old and in a dilapidated condition. The building needs urgent repair. These inspection reports were forwarded to the institution for rectification of this serious deficiency but the same is persisting as is evident from the subsequent inspection reports. - Since it is a question of safety of the students and other manpower working in the institution, it was decided to request for the personal intervention of the Health Secretary, Govt. of Uttar Pradesh under intimation to the Principal further stating that if any mis-happening occurs, the entire consequences thereof shall rest on the institution and PCI will not be responsible for the same.
